

St. Paul Blackhawks Soccer Club 2010 Summer Camps

Founded in 1952, St. Paul Blackhawks is a non-profit organization serving players ages five to nineteen. The Blackhawks training philosophy develops players starting at five years old, fostering a love of the game and developing skills that allow each athlete to compete at the highest levels and become passionate, life-long soccer players.

5-8 year old

Little Hawks Soccer Camp
9:00 - 10:30 am, June 21-25
Edgumbe Rec Center, Cost $70

Teaches children fundamental soccer skills while having fun. Small sided games provide lots of touches on the ball. Coaches will provide fun, fast-paced soccer-related games, activities, and play.

12-17 year old

Blackhawks Competitive Camp
9:00 am - 12:00, July 19-23
McMurray Fields, Cost $130

Get prepared for the upcoming school season, summer state tournament and tryouts. These advanced sessions will cover both physical and mental aspects of the game, and send you into tryouts with a renewed sense of confidence.

9-14 year old

Striker Camp

With a focus on technique and outcome - how many of your 1000 shots will go in the net?

Keeper Camp

Denying goals is what it's all about! Focus on technique and outcome with plenty of live shots.
